Laura Czerniewicz, Cheryl Brown, Samantha Lee Pan, Alfred Moyo

Centre for Educational Technology, University of Cape Town, Laura.Czerniewicz@uct.ac.za

:

$\square$ &

Figure 1: Student on-campus access

Table 1: Ease of access on campus by socio-economic group

|

Figure 2: Student off-campus access

Table 2: Off campus access by socio economic group

| Off campus index	Low socio-economic group	Average socio-economic group	High socio-economic group

Figure 3: Students who use cell phones to access the Internet off campus by socio-economic group

Access: the Internet

|	Dial up	Broadband	Cellphone	Wireless	Satellite
	26%	19%	43%	8%	4%

Figure 4: Type of connection off campus[5]

	Dial up	Broadband	Cellphone	Wireless	Satellite
Low	18%	19%	51%	6%	7%
Average	29%	21%	38%	8%	3%
High	30%	18%	41%	9%	2%
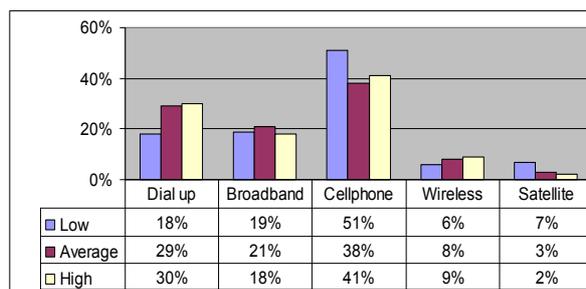

Figure 5: Type of connectivity off campus

Table 3: Students' ICT social use

Use of ICTs socially	Hardly ever	Sometimes	Often	n

E /   /   & /

Table 10: Specific social uses by socio-economic group

Table 11: Comparison of students' social email use for communication in conditions of excellent off-campus access

```
Pearson chi2(4) =   9.8309   Pr = 0.043
```

Table 12: Main gender differences of social use